Commercial in confidence

Ms Young

I am in the process of seeking my discharge as trustee in bankruptcy of your former husband. Once I am discharged the matter will be returned to the Official Receiver.

I anticipate that my discharge will occur within the next 14 days

Mr. Ingram.

I refer to your email to Mrs. Young of 15th April 2020. Is it not unusual for a trustee, ten years on from a bankruptcy not to have resigned and passed matters over to the Official Receiver? Do I infer that after all of this time that is still a need for you to remain in situ?

Thank you

Michelle Young
