Urgent Follow-Up:

Meeting Request on National Security and Public Interest Matters

Dear Land Registry Compliance Officer,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing to follow up on my previous email regarding the urgent meeting request concerning critical matters impacting national security and public interest.

These issues remain unresolved and require immediate attention.

As previously mentioned, there are 4-5 cases that necessitate swift action.

Given the gravity of the situation, we insist on scheduling a meeting within the next seven days.

Your expertise is crucial in addressing these pressing matters effectively.

Please note that journalists have been informed about the situation, but they will not attend the meeting.

However, if we do not receive a positive response regarding the meeting, we will be compelled to share the documentary evidence with them to ensure public awareness.

We appreciate your prompt attention to this matter and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

T O'Hara

Dear Customer

Thank you for your email of 4 April 2025 addressed to Simon Hayes.

I should explain that whilst Simon Hayes, in his capacity as Chief Executive and Chief Land Registrar, does have responsibility for the day to day business of HM Land Registry, he has no personal involvement in investigating individual land registration matters which more appropriately fall within the responsibility of one of our local offices.

Therefore, I will ensure that your correspondence is passed to a colleague with the relevant expertise as a priority. They will investigate this matter and send you a full response as quickly as possible.

Kind Regards
